Surviving Holocaust Torah

Something to Treasure, Something to Display

Did you know... B'nai Shalom has a hidden treasure that must be shared. We are the proud care takers of one of the recovered WWII Torah scrolls from Czechoslovakia. It is registered with the Memorial Scrolls Trust in London, England.

This surviving testament to our history should be on display in our synagogue for our members, our children, our guests and for the memory of those who lost it. It is also in need repair.

The fundraiser? Simple!

With the generous support of the Streit's Matzo Company, we have put together a "Passover Food Store."

Simply order from our shopping list and pick up your order at our Franklin location. Orders can be picked up during our Hebrew School Model Seder, Sunday April 17, 2016 between 10:00 am and 12:00pm.

OY! Our prices are cheaper than retail!
Save money and help a GREAT cause.

The Story of the Jewish Torahs of Czechoslovakia

Early in February 1964, in the nineteenth year after the last German troops had surrendered in Prague, there arrived in London 1,564 Torah scrolls representing hundreds of Jewish communities in Bohemia and Moravia that had been wiped out in the Holocaust. For many years, the scrolls had lain unused and unattended in a Prague synagogue that had been used as a warehouse. Then they traveled across Europe and arrived at the Westminster Synagogue in London on February 7, 1964. From there, over the years that have passed since, they have been sent out to Jewish communities in Great Britain and twenty other countries of the Western world, including West Germany, to be cherished as memorials to a tragic past but at the same time to be read and studied by a new generation of Jews, the guarantors of Jewish survival and rebirth.

The Torah scrolls from Czechoslovakia were part of a huge collection of Jewish ceremonial objects that were collected at the Jewish Museum at the instigation of the Jewish curators who worked there. Under the watchful eye of the Nazis, Jews in Prague sorted, classified, and catalogued these treasures and arranged the scrolls in stacks reaching from the floor to the ceiling. For the Jews thus employed, it was a short reprieve; even before their task was completed, they were deported and all but two eventually perished in the death camps.

One of these treasures resides with us at B'nai Shalom. It is very fragile and in need of much work which is why it is not used anymore. However, our plans are to showcase this historical Torah for all to see and we are proud to make it part of our heritage.

Many of the Torahs, like ours, have been entrusted to synagogues around the world to be cared for and displayed so that the memory of their origin never fades. Our Torah, written at the beginning of the 19th century is no longer kosher due to the fact that it was damaged by the Nazis. You will notice that the top scroll handles have been removed, most likely for the precious metals or jewels that once adorned them.
